College cleaning campaign on the Occasion of Birth Anniversary Sant Gadge Maharaj

Name of the Programme	Day and Date	Beneficiaries
College cleaning campaign on the Occasion of Birth Anniversary Sant Gadge Maharaj	Friday 23 February 2024	28

Objective

To promote cleanliness and hygiene in a holistic manner

Brief Report

Gadge Baba frequently traveled between villages, always carrying a broom. Upon entering a village, he would sweep it clean and start cleaning gutters and roads. His goal was to promote community hygiene and eliminate superstitious beliefs from society. Through his actions, he conveyed the message of cleanliness, not just through words but also through practical examples. He emphasized the importance of cleanliness and maintaining hygiene.

In order to increase the importance of cleanliness among the students of the college, an initiative was organized to clean the college premises. The principal of the college, Dr. Shivling Mainkudale and NSS Program Officer Dr. A. I. Shaikh Guided the student. 28 students were present in this activity.

Outcomes

Promoted cleanliness and hygiene in a holistic manner

Voter Registration Programme Report

Introduction:

The National Service Scheme (NSS) unit of Savitribai Phule Mahila Mahavidyalaya, Satara, organized a Voter Registration Programme to encourage citizens, especially students, to participate actively in the electoral process. The event was designed to assist individuals in registering as voters and increase awareness about the electoral system. By facilitating voter registration and educating students about their rights and responsibilities, the NSS aimed to contribute to the development of a well-informed and engaged electorate.

Objectives:

- 1) Assist eligible individuals, particularly youth and first-time voters, in registering for voter IDs..
- 2) Provide guidance on how to fill out the voter registration form and complete the necessary steps for registration.
- 3) Encourage young adults, particularly those who have just turned 18, to register as voters and participate in elections.
- 4) Raise awareness about online voter registration, making the process easier and more accessible for tech-savvy individuals..

Description:

The Voter Registration Programme organized by the NSS unit of Savitribai Phule Mahila Mahavidyalaya, Satara, was a successful initiative that achieved its goal of facilitating voter registration and increasing awareness about the electoral process. By providing guidance on both offline and online registration methods, the event empowered participants to take an active role in the democratic process. It also educated students and local residents about their rights and responsibilities as voters, helping to create an informed electorate.

The programme particularly succeeded in engaging first-time voters, raising awareness about the importance of voting, and promoting the ease of online voter registration. As a result, the event contributed to strengthening the democratic fabric of the community and ensuring that more citizens are prepared to participate in the electoral process. 387 student and NSS volunteers were actively participated in this programme.

Outcomes:

Increased Voter Registration:

- A significant number of students and local residents registered as voters during the event. The on-site assistance provided by NSS volunteers ensured a smooth and efficient registration process, leading to an increased number of registrations.

Awareness Raised Among Youth:

- The event successfully engaged first-time voters, particularly students who had recently turned 18. Many young participants were excited to register and expressed interest in voting in upcoming elections.

Promoted Online Voter Registration:

- The programme led to increased awareness about the convenience of online voter registration. Many participants were eager to use the online platform for registering as voters, thanks to the demonstration and guidance provided during the event.

Meri Matti-Mera Desh Programme Report

Academic Year: 2023-24

Day / Date: Thursday, 17th Oct 2023

Introduction:

The Meri Matti, Mera Desh campaign was organized under the National Service Scheme (NSS) at Savitribai Phule Mahila Mahavidyalaya, Satara, on 17th October 2023. This program was initiated to foster a sense of patriotism, environmental consciousness, and community participation among students. The event also aligned with the nationwide initiative to honor the contributions of individuals toward the nation and environment.

Objectives:

The primary objectives of the program were:

1. To instill a sense of pride and connection with the nation's heritage and culture.
2. To promote the idea of environmental stewardship and sustainable development.
3. To engage students in meaningful activities contributing to the community.
4. To create awareness about the importance of soil conservation and its role in the country's development.

Description:

The event began with an inspiring inaugural address by the principal, who emphasized the significance of the Meri Matti, Mera Desh initiative. The following key activities were conducted during the program:

Soil Collection Ceremony: Students brought soil from their localities symbolizing unity and connection with their homeland.

Patriotic Pledge: A pledge was taken by all participants to serve the nation and preserve its natural resources.

Outcomes:

The program witnessed active participation from students, faculty, and local community members, with over [number] attendees. Key outcomes included:

1. Enhanced awareness among participants about their role in preserving cultural and environmental heritage.
2. Successful plantation of [number] saplings, contributing to local greenery.
3. Encouraging active participation in community-oriented activities.
4. Strengthening the bond of students with their roots and culture.
5. Promoting teamwork and a sense of responsibility among participants.

The "Meri Matti, Mera Desh" program was a resounding success, leaving a lasting impression on the participants. It highlighted the importance of cultural pride, environmental care, and collective efforts in shaping a brighter future for our nation.

Savidhan Din Programme Report

Academic Year: 2023-24

Day / Date: Tuesday, 26th Nov 2023

Introduction:

The National Service Scheme (NSS) unit of Savitribai Phule Mahila Mahavidyalaya, Satara, organized a program to commemorate "Savidhan Din" (Constitution Day) on 26th November. This day marks the adoption of the Constitution of India in 1949 and celebrates its significance in building a just and democratic society.

Objectives:

objectives of the program :

1. To create awareness about the Constitution of India and its importance in ensuring justice, equality, and liberty for all citizens.
2. To inspire students to understand their roles and responsibilities as informed citizens of the nation.
3. To honor the values enshrined in the Constitution and encourage their application in daily life.

Description:

The program began with a formal inauguration by the college principal and NSS program officer. Key highlights of the event included: Reading of the Preamble: Students and faculty collectively recited the Preamble to reaffirm their commitment to the constitutional values. Guest Lecture -An esteemed speaker was invited to deliver an insightful lecture on the historical significance of the Constitution and its role in nation-building. Discussion Session: A panel discussion and interactive Q&A session allowed students to share their thoughts on constitutional rights and duties.

The event witnessed active participation from students, faculty, and NSS volunteers, creating a vibrant and reflective atmosphere.

Outcomes:

1. Students gained a deeper understanding of the Indian Constitution and its relevance in modern society.
2. Participants developed a sense of patriotism and responsibility toward upholding democratic values.
3. The program successfully instilled awareness about the duties and rights of citizens, empowering students to contribute positively to the nation's progress.
4. Creative competitions enhanced students' analytical and artistic skills, fostering critical thinking.

The program concluded with a vote of thanks, emphasizing the importance of actively practicing constitutional values in everyday life.
