Wildlife Poster Exhibition

Introduction:

Dept. of Geography, Savitribai Phule Mahila Mahavidyalaya and the Department of Zoology, Yashwantrao Chavan Institute of Satara, collaborated to organize a Wildlife Exhibition on 4th March 2024 at Dharmavir Sambhaji Vidyalaya, Degaon.

Objectives:

- 1) To commemorate World Wildlife Day and promote awareness about the importance of wildlife conservation among school students.
- 2) To educate students about the various threats facing wildlife species, such as habitat loss, poaching, pollution, and climate change.
- 3) To develop a sense of responsibility towards protecting biodiversity and preserving natural habitats for future generations.

Description:

Department of Geography celebrated World Wildlife Day by organizing wildlife poster exhibition was a meaningful initiative to promote environmental education and awareness. Through engaging displays and informative content, the exhibition successfully conveyed key messages about the importance of wildlife conservation. Moving forward, it is essential to continue organizing such events to inspire future generations to become advocates for wildlife and the environment.

Exhibition Highlights:

Poster Displays: The exhibition featured a diverse range of posters depicting various aspects of wildlife, including endangered species, ecosystems, and conservation efforts.

Educational Content: Each poster provided informative content, educating visitors about the importance of wildlife conservation and the threats facing biodiversity.

Interactive Learning: Attendees had the opportunity to engage with the posters, ask questions, and learn from the displayed information.

Visual Appeal: The posters were visually captivating, incorporating vibrant images and illustrations to capture the attention of visitors.

A total of 97 students visited the exhibition. For the success of this event, efforts by students and teachers from Mahila Mahavidyalya and Y.C.I.S. Satara

Inauguration : Mrs. R.R Vadate , Dr.A.A Phate and others
