Introduction:

International Women's Day is celebrated over the world, every year on the 8th March. It celebrates womanhood and pays tribute to the indomitable spirit of women across the globe. Its root lies in the early 1900s when oppression and inequality was spurring women to become more vocal and active in campaigning for change. Also, the milestone to be reached is the basic information for a girl child in every family education will during awareness among the society which will further result in overall development of nation and its community. Department of Library organized book exhibition on the occasion of International women's day and countdown of International Yoga Day on 8th March and 14 May 2022 in college premises. The posters world famous women personalities such as: Mother Theresa, Indira Gandhi etc. and Well-known books related to women aspects of social, cultural, industrial and political life were on displayed on the college notice board.

Objectives:

1. To create awareness of gender equality for a healthy society.
2. To encourage students and teachers for reading women's Autobiography.

Resource Person:

Dr. Vandana Nalawade, Principal, Azad College of Education.

Principal Dr. Shivling Menkudale

Description of Activity:

Although women's reservation, women's empowerment policies of the government as well as educational opportunities are leading to women's empowerment, women need to be more aware of the law and facilities. There is no alternative to education and reading. Opportunities and education with the changing times are empowering women, but if the idea of self-awareness is to be developed further, there is no alternative to read books, is stated by Dr. Vandana Nalawade, Principal, Azad College of Education.

Speaking from the presidency desk, Principal Dr. Shivling Menkudale Auditor of Rayat Shikshan Sanstha and Principal of the college said that maximum reading is required for the development of women's independent decision making ability.

Beneficiaries:

With the cooperation of all the teachers, non-teaching staff and students, this activity was successfully completed. Good number of students and staff of College participated in this activity.

Outcomes:

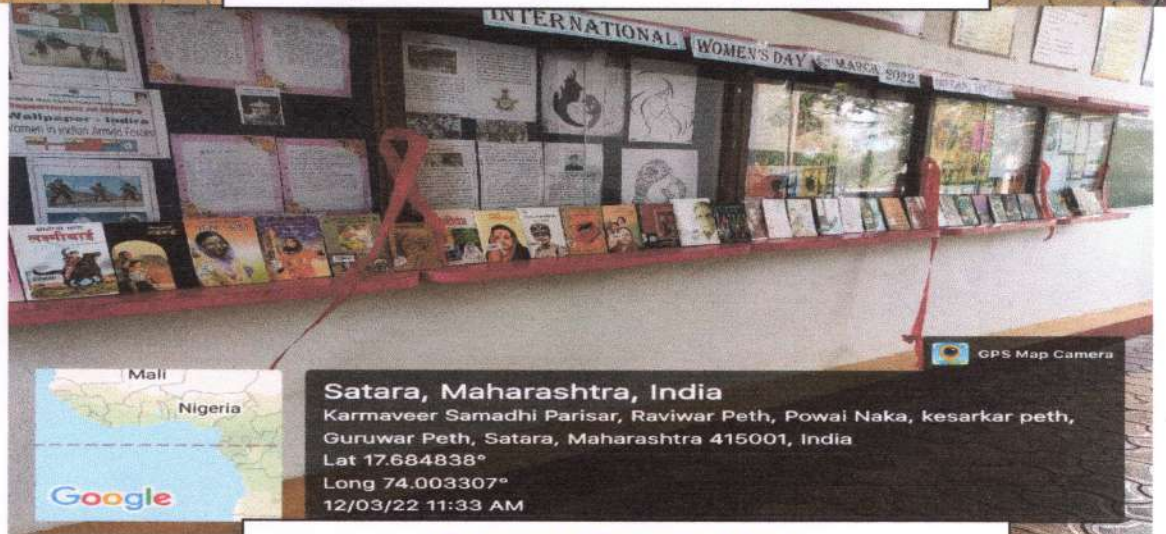

Women are a valuable part of society, they are the key to preserve the human race and in today's world, the importance of women in society is beyond any suspicion. It encourages students to read the books of well known personalities and understand their works and become able to share and apply their thoughts in own life.
