"Marathi Journalist Day Report"

Name of the Activity: "Marathi Journalist Day"

Day and Date: Wednesday 06/01/2022

Time: 11.30 to 12.30

Introduction:

The Marathi Journalist Day is observed every year in Maharashtra State in respect of Balshastri Jambhekar. He known as the father of Marathi journalism started the first newspaper 'Darpan'. Since then this day is being celebrated as the Marathi Journalism day in the state. The journalist fraternity across Maharashtra was felicitated on the occasion. On this occasion of Press Day, the Library and the Marathi Department invited the editors, deputy editors and news correspondents of various newspapers in Satara district to the college.

Objectives:

1. To celebrate 'National Journalist Day'.
2. To honour the social contribution of news reporters and news papers.
3. To contribute through college activities.

Resource Person:

Shri. Bapusaheb Jadhav, Senior Journalist

Shri. Pradip Kamble, wellknown Marathi Poet from Satara

Descriptions of the Activity:

On this occasion Senior Journalist Shri. Bapusaheb Jadhav, said that, Even today people like to have their first morning tea with a newspaper. The rise of Indian journalism was during the British rule. This journalism was not started for the purpose of professionalism. The goal was to introduce modernity to our society through Western education. In a democracy, journalism is called the fourth pillar. Today, many changes have taken place in Marathi journalism. The process by which newspapers were once printed, that process has undergone tremendous changes due to electrical mechanization, but there is no doubt that this newspaper, which works for social enlightenment, will retain its place for centuries to come.

On this occasion Chief guest of this programme Shri. Pradip Kamble, wellknown Marathi Poet from Satara said that, it is a good business to take out newspaper clippings and provide a collection of those clippings to the organization or person whose news they belong to. The number of people interested in publicity is increasing in the society. Many social workers, organizations and leaders have a curious interest in where their news is published. The news items published in various newspapers of various activities of the college were displayed in glass panels. The purpose behind this was to spread the word about the activities of the college to the society.

The exhibition was inaugurated by Shri. Bapusaheb Jadhav, Past Editor of Gramodhar and Shri. Pradip Kamble. The introductory speech of the program was made by Dr. Gajanan Bhosale, and Shri. Ghanshyam Giri, Head of Marathi Department introduced the guests. The head of the library department, Mrs. Asha Jirage extended the vote of thanks and gratitude.
